

I would like to submit a complaint regarding the AOL Super Bowl half time show.

I have always considered Football a family show. Today with the disgusting display pawned off as entertainment by the Janet Jackson Performance I am sorry to say that I can no longer consider the Super Bowl something children should watch. Following the dirty dancing the male "performer" ripping Janet Jackson top off exposing her breast was in the poorest of taste. This demonstrates violence against women as well as activity truly unfit for family television. If one wants to see this type behavior then I suggest an Adult Club.
